HOMAK PENN OHIO PRO STOCK CHAMPIONSHIP 2ND MINI SERIES EVENT FOUND PAUL DAVIS TAKING HOME THE $1,500 CHECK!

(Sandy Lake, PA) The Homak Penn Ohio Pro Stock Championship Series had Paul Davis, the 55-year-old veteran racer, find his way to victory lane in the 2nd Mini Series Event at Sharon Speedway. The event was the “Jimmy Hooks Memorial” worth $1,500 to-win. Davis chose a great night to capture his first win since September 20, 2014 over an impressive 40-car field.

The race started with three cautions in the first lap. Once racing got underway, Shaun Fawcett took the top spot from pole-sitter Corey McPherson with fourth starting Davis moving to second. By lap four, Fawcett and Davis pulled away, while McPherson battled Jackson Humanic and Chris Schneider for third. Schneider passed Humanic on lap five for fourth and two laps later got past McPherson for third. On lap six, Davis drove by Fawcett in turn four for the lead. Davis pulled away as he ran the quickest lap of the race. Three more cautions halted action between laps 10-15 with one being a red for Curtis Bish rolling over on a restart coming out of turn 4.

When racing resumed, Davis quickly regained control. Fawcett slipped high on lap 18 allowing Schneider and McPherson to take over second and third. Schneider closed the gap in the final two laps, but would come up 0.941 of a second shy to Davis’ Hover Racing/Collins Heating & Cooling/Ocala Restaurant Supply/Don Williams Trucking-sponsored #3. The victory was Davis’ 18th of his career at Sharon in Stock Car competition and 21st overall at the track.

McPherson finished third, while Fawcett dropped to fourth. Rusty Moore, who won the $200 to-win M&T Allison Construction sponsored Jimmy Hooks Memorial dash, came home in fifth. Steve D'Apolito was sixth. Shaun Hooks raced from 21st to seventh and earned the $25 Summit Racing Equipment hard charger certificate through Sharon Speedway and a $50 hard charger award from Westhill Automotive through the Homak Penn Ohio Pro Stock Championship Series. Andy Buckley, Humanic, and Brian Rhed completed the top 10. McPherson, Fawcett, Humanic, and Davis won the heat races over the 40-car field, while Hooks and Bobby Whittling copped the last chance B mains.

Contingency prize winners were: Paul Davis-Hoosier tire donated by Hoosier Tire Mid Atlantic and Precise Racing Products; Chris Haines-$25 Gift Card donated by Precise Racing Products; Shaun Fawcett-$25 Gift Certificate donated by Wedge Motorsports; Randy Wyant-$25 Gift Certificate donated by Big Daddy's Speed Center; Shaun Hooks-$50 Hard Charger donated by Westhill Automotive.
